Our Process

This year Suisun Valley will celebrate 40 years since it earned the designation as an AVA (American Viticultural Area). The anniversary holds a special place in our family history, as our own Chick Lanza was instrumental in leading the effort. The approach of this historical date inspired us to create a wine that would define Suisun Valley in just one sip. Exit Forty One has exceeded the goal! This blend was destined to be predominantly Petite Sirah, Suisun Valley's signature grape, from the beginning. With this in mind, Rick set out to create a wine with the same adventurous spirit that embodies the experience that awaits at Exit Forty One. Exit Forty One isn't just any red wine; it's a feeling that can transcend beyond the name, place, or experience. It's the lifestyle and culture of adventure ...it's Suisun Valley's essence in a bottle.

Tasting Notes

Welcome the new and adventurous Exit Forty One, a Petite Sirah and Cabernet Sauvignon blend! This medium tannic red opens with aromas of brilliant red currants, cola, and a hint of smoke. Rich and bold in flavors, black fruits, spices, and just a little hint of dark cocoa will truly take you on the path less traveled!
